"To every man there openeth
A way, and ways, and a way,
And the high soul climbs the high way
And the low soul gropes the low
And in between on the misty flat
The rest drift to and fro;
But to every man there openeth
A high way and a low
And every man decideth
The way his soul shall go"

Offer of the College to all lands, to all ages, to all nations, and in all climates intends to gain a reputation for the acquisition of other men's work, and the mastery of the tools of the world's library in your pocket, and feel its resources bandied on in whatever fast you undertake, to make hosts of friends among the men of your own age who are to be leaders in all walks of life; to lose yourself in generous enthusiasms and cooperate with others for common ends; to learn manners from students who are gentlemen, and form character under professors who are Christians;—This is the offer of the College for the best four years of your life."

Generations seeking knowledge and opportunity

Have widened this beaten path.

For giving us courage, friendship, insight and guidance; we, the members of the Senior Class, gratefully dedicate this, the 1957 INDIANHEAD, to our beloved professor, Dr. Herbert H. Todd.

In our quest for a theme for the 1957 INDIANHEAD, we were inspired by the many doors to opportunity which Pembroke State College has to offer. There are limitless opportunities--

Through living and getting along with others,
Through student government,
Through organization and club activities,
Through educational facilities,
Through dormitory life,
Through friendly association with teachers,
Through free access to offices of administrators,
Through eating together,
Through learning from others, not only in class, but also students with different ideas and backgrounds - and Through playing together.

In short, at P.S.C. we have the golden opportunity to live to learn, and to learn to live.

With this in mind, we chose as our theme,

Princess Cinderella and Prince Gene are Congratulated

The 1956 May Day at P. S. C. beautifully portrayed the old, old story of Cinderella and the young Prince. The audience saw Mr. L. B. McLendon of Greensboro, a member of the North Carolina Higher Board of Education crown Mary Alice Pinchbeck of Pembroke, Queen, and Gene Jones of Laurel Hill, King of May Day.

Shown in picture are Dr. R. D. Wellons, President of P. S. C. and Mr. McLendon chatting with Cinderella and the Prince.

The 1957 INDIANHEAD Staff has endeavored to record in picture and word the opportunities, activities, and accomplishments in the departments, groups, and sections of campus life.

The INDIANHEAD Business Staff was responsible for financing and distributing the 1957 book. Successful advertising, sales, and a portion of the student activity fee furnished necessary finances.

The Staff sincerely hopes that this book will always be a reminder to each student of a glorious year spent at Pembroke State College.

President's Message

The theme of the 1957 Indianhead is most appropriate. Pembroke State College has extended to each of you many Doors to Opportunity. The Opportunities are innumerable - varied as to nature and kind.

Unfortunately, these Doors open not to guaranteed achievements, but to opportunity only. Opportunity has been defined as "a favorable combination of circumstances". Although the college establishes an ideal environment for learning, it is necessary for you, the student, to bring many elements to this "Combination of Circumstances". You must bring an extensive experiential background, supplemented by interest, enthusiasm, energy, ambition, and numberless other positive attributes. Unless a student does bring these elements to that "combination of circumstances" designated as opportunity, she shall not attain success.

Your presence here at Pembroke State College indicates you have accepted the responsibility for providing those elements essential to learning which only the student can contribute. You will profit to the degree to which you effect your contribution; your contribution will be a sound, if indirect, measure of your attainment.

The State of North Carolina has provided superior physical facilities for your study, excellent teachers for the guidance of your academic endeavors, and a total institutional situation which is optimal for your personal development - intellectual, social, and spiritual. Yours is the challenge to fully establish the right combination of circumstances to make this your true opportunity.

P. S. C. Presidents at the Crossroads

In July, 1956, Dr. R. D. Wellons, President of Pembroke State College for the past 14 years, handed over the keys to the President's office to Dr. Walter J. Gale, in-coming President of P.S.C.

Miss Sharpe Honored

In recognition of her many years of faithful service to the school, the church, and the community, Miss Mary Sharpe, having reached the age of retirement, has been honored, by an act of the T.S.C. Board of Trustees, by making her Professor Emeritus of Education, effective July 1st.

Through Miss Sharpe's untiring efforts the School of Elementary Education has steadily grown stronger. As a result of her giving, through the majority of the Jackson County elementary teachers, of her having given a number of youngsters a priceless boost on the pathway of education, and of her having touched and made richer the lives of many people of the churches and in the college community, Miss Sharpe's far-reaching influence will be reaping a rich harvest for many years to come.

I knock unbidden once at every gate
If sleeping wake - if fasting rise before
I turn away - it is the hour of fate
And they who follow me reach every state
Mortals desire, and conquer every foe
Save death, but those who doubt or hesitate
Condemned to failure, penury and woe,
Seek me in vain and uselessly implore,
I answer not, and I return no more!

Picture Making Time Again!

Each year the students of P. S. C. look forward to the time when Lauergne's station wagon steps in front of Locklear Hall, for that means but one thing - Indianhead picture making time. Pictured is a group of young people chatting with Mr. Johnson on his arrival.

Thank You, Photographers

The members of the Indianhead Staff wish to thank you, Mr. English Jones and Mr. Elmer Hunt, for taking, developing, and enlarging the yearbook pictures. Without your assistance and co-operation the 1957 Indianhead would have been impossible.

For age is opportunity no less
Than youth itself, though in another dress
And as the evening twilight fades away
The sky is filled with stars, invisible to day
